South Palo Alto 4 Bed, 2 Bath Home In Need Of Updated Finishes and TLC

Located about 1/4 mile away from the Charleston Shopping Center and Mitchell Park, this home is a gem needing a little polish. It clearly needs some updated finishes, but rather than pay for someone else's preferences or generic choices, you can make this home have what you like and potentially have the improvements guaranteed. No need to worry if quick fixes done to sell the house will hold up.

The outside of the house and yard are quite nice. Even without adding your own touches, sitting in the backyard is quite pleasing and relaxing. Inside, the finishes, carpets, and floors reflect much of the 1961 vintage of the home. A skylight, a front facing window, and the adjacent dining room provide natural light for the kitchen. The dining room is separated from the kitchen by a counter. The dining room has a wide passage opening to a large family room that has a decorative open beam ceiling, a window looking out to the back patio, and a sliding glass door to the patio on the side. The large living room is at the end of the entrance foyer and adjacent to the family room. Both bathrooms were updated in the past. The primary bedroom has aged carpet, while the other three bedrooms have oak floors.

Polish up this gem, make it your home, and enjoy walking to nearby shops, cafes, and parks.
