Located in the Barron Park neighborhood of Palo Alto, which only has businesses on its periphery and no through commute routes, this beautiful and spacious home is in a tranquil neighborhood but still has many cafes, shops, parks, schools, and more, only a short walk away. The size of this home gives you great flexibility.

The spacious kitchen is a beautiful and warm combination of stained wood cabinets, polished stone countertops, high mosaic tile backsplash, and a rich wood floor. The kitchen is open to the family room and has a center island. The front door opens to the open beamed living room and formal dining room. A fireplace across the living room creates a warm invitation to enter. The two story design of the house leaves ample room for both front and back yards.
